First Reading

Isaiah 22: 19-23

Shebna was probably a leading force in encouraging King Hezekiah to adopt a disastrous foreign policy, and he was replaced by Eliakim—an act that the prophet ascribes to God. Eliakim is basically made the secretary of state, and the investiture ceremony included a ritual placing of the palace keys on his shoulder as a symbol of total authority.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 138

The cantor will sing the refrain the first time. Please join in singing the second time.

Lord, your love is e - ter - nal, Lord, your love is e - ter - nal;
do not for - sake the work of your hands, Lord, your love is e - ter - nal.

Second Reading

Romans 11: 33-36

This short act of praise is a reminder that God alone knows what the plan is for the cosmos and for each of us.

Gospel Acclamation

Mass of the Angels and Saints

Gospel

Matthew 16: 13-20

Simon son of Jonah, who may be the most unlikely candidate for the job among the apostles, is given the nickname (Peter) and is proclaimed the rock on which Jesus will build the Church.

Profession of Faith

Apostles' Creed

(All bow at the words highlighted in red.)

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of Heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.
