~LITURGY OF THE WORD~

First Reading

Jeremiah 20: 7-9

Jeremiah preached while the world as he knew it was crumbling. The Babylonians were attacking Jerusalem. Yet the religious leaders and others refused to heed his words. Indeed, they did all they could to discredit him. It is no wonder Jeremiah in this passage cries out in frustration. But his faith is greater than his fear.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 63

The cantor will sing the refrain the first time. Please join in singing the second time.

My soul is thirst - ing for you, O Lord my - God.

Second Reading

Romans 12: 1-2

This short passage begins a new section in Romans. Paul asks the people to be open to the transformation that God gives. We too are called to let go of conventions of the way things were and let God teach us how things should be.

Gospel Acclamation

The cantor will sing the refrain the first time. Please join in singing the second time.

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Gospel

Matthew 16: 21-27

Last week we heard Peter's confession of faith at Caesarea Philippi and Jesus proclaiming that he is the rock upon which Jesus will build his Church. However, in today's passage we hear that while Peter knew the right words, he was still ignorant of the deep truth of what would happen. Peter, and us, need to let go of the ways of the world and embrace the cross.

Profession of Faith

Apostles' Creed

(All bow at the words highlighted in red.)
I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of Heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Universal Prayer

Prayer for vocations

Almighty Father, you have created us for some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous, "Yes."
Make our archdiocese, parishes, homes, and hearts fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations.
May our young people respond to your call with courage and zeal. Stir among our men a desire and the strength to be good and holy priests. Bless us with consecrated religious and those called to a chaste single life, permanent deacons, and faithful husbands and wives who are a sign of Christ's love for His Church.
We commend our prayer for vocations to You, Father, through the intercession of Mary, our Mother, in the Holy Spirit through Christ our Lord, Amen.
