~LITURGY OF THE WORD~

First Reading

Revelation 7: 2-4, 9-14

The Book of Revelation was written in approximately 100AD to a group of churches facing persecution. Today's passage describes the glorious heavenly court and the protection of God for God's people.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 24

The cantor will sing the refrain the first time. Please join in singing the second time.

Lord, this is the peo - ple that longs to see your face, that longs to see your face.

Second Reading

I John 3: 1-3

This epistle is a bit dualistic and describes the world in different camps. We belong to God. We are children of God. It is a question of owning the truth of our identity. We know who we are and whose we are. Others may not recognize this, but not everyone knew the truth of Jesus.

Gospel Acclamation

Festival Alleluia

The cantor will sing the refrain the first time. Please join in singing the second time.

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia!

Gospel

Matthew 5: 1-12a

Today we hear the Beatitudes. This passage begins the famous Sermon on the Mount which contains some of the most difficult teachings of Jesus such as loving enemies and not judging others. The Beatitudes summarize and provide an introduction to these teachings. This is the heart of a disciple. This is who we are called to be. Peacemakers, merciful, hungering for righteousness.

Profession of Faith

(All bow at the words highlighted in red.)

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of Heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.
